The United States Army Cableship Burnside Arrives From Seattle,

The United States Army cableship, tanks for storing a large amount of Burnside arrived yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock from Seattle, en route to-The vessel berthed at Naval dock No. 2 and will take on about 400 tons of coal today. She is scheduled to leave for Manila at 5 o'clock

The Burnside left Seattle on January 1, and was therefore out twelve days. rough weather. No sighted on the voyage.

The cableship on arrival in the Philippines, will repair some of the military cables laid by the same vessel during the past three years. There are also about 900 miles of cable awaiting the vessel at Manila, which will be laid over two or three projected routes. , One of these will be to connect the islands of Luzon and Cata-

The Burnside is one of the trophies of the Spanish war. In the early part of 1898 the Burnside, then the Spanish merchant steamer Rita, was captured by the U. S. cruiser Yale off Porto Rico, as she was heading for Ponce. The vessel was given a prize crew and sent to Tampa. She was there put in command of Captain Laffin, who is yet her skipper. Captain Laffin is now the senior captain of the transport service. The vessel was fitted up as an army transport and assigned to the route covering Cuba, Porto Rico

In the summer of 1900 the vessel was converted into a cable ship, given cable and was then sent to Manila via the Suez canal. All the cables laid in the Philippines since the United States assumed sovereignty over the archipelago were installed by the Burnside.

While still engaged in this work in the Philippines Captain C. De F. Chandler, Signal Corps, U. S. A., was assigned to the vessel as army quartermaster and commissary and given full charge of all cable laying operations. Orders were received last year to return to the United States and the vessel proceeded to New York where cable for Alaska was taken aboard. The vessel then came around the Horn to Alaska and laid a cable from Juneau to Sitka, 253 knots in length. Repairs have also been made to others already laid. The difficulty of maintaining cables in Alaska waters is that the ice

Nearly 2000 miles of cable were laid in the Philippines, comprising thirtyfive distinct routes.

Captain Chandler is in general charge of all cable-laying operations. The cable staff consists of Henry Winter, cable engineer, a civilian; David Lynch, cable electrician, a civilian; Frederick Mumma, electrical engineer, a civilian, who will remain in the Philippines. There are a number of passengers aboard en route to Manila.

The Burnside carries a crew of Fillpinos and the cable men are also Filipinos. They have been found satisfactory during their service of nearly
